

TEAM WORK

loving your Co-Workers

Key Idea: I am called to serve in my vocation.

Key Verse: Colossians 3:23-24

Key Application:

- ♥ My co-workers are my teammates, each loved by God.
- ♥ I miss my co-workers when I am away from my work.

♥ I work to solve relational problems, in a Godly manner, between myself and my co-workers.

Colossians 3:23-24

Whatever you do, work heartily, as for the Lord and not for men, knowing that from the Lord you will receive the inheritance as your reward. You are serving the Lord Christ.

1. How can you turn a “complaining” work environment into one of joy, purpose, and passion?

2. Is it important to “rest” from your work? Why or why not? What benefit or detriment might that have?

3. Do you have a common purpose in work with your co-workers? Where do you differ in purpose? How does having a common purposes affect your relationship with one another?

4. How does “working for God” change the nature of your relationship with your co-workers?
