Volunteers need to be 18 years of age.

RED KETTLE BELL RINGERS

Sign-up at the Mission and Outreach table

The Broomfield Salvation Army needs your help ringing a bell. The Salvation Army "Red Kettle" stations help raise funds "to do the most good" in our area. Risen Savior has volunteered at two sites in Broomfield on different Saturdays: December 1, 8 & 15. Store locations, King Soopers at W 136th Ave and Macy's in the Orchard Center.

Sign-up at the Mission & Outreach table.

Anyone can do this--individuals, families with children, friends, groups. All you need is a cheery attitude and the ability to wish neighbors a "Merry Christmas". The need for volunteers is especially critical this year because of the cost of to pay for ringers in our area. Contact Rick or Chris Bergsieker through the church office with questions.

The Red Kettle Bell program is the main source of funds for these Christ centered activities.

Making a Difference in a Changing World

As we celebrate the Word made flesh this Christmas season, let's keep Lutheran Heritage Foundation in our prayers! For more than 25 years LHF has been extending the ministry of Word by translating and publishing Lutheran books that help explain the Bible. Some of these books include Luther's Small Catechism, A Child's Garden of Bible Stories, hymnals, devotions, and more. Over 3 million books have been distributed at no cost to churches, pastors, individuals and missionaries. When funds are available our Lutheran Women Missionary League, Rocky Mountain District mission grant, $5000 for Lutheran Books for Missionaries Around the World will be applied to the next unfunded project request Lutheran Heritage Foundation receives from a missionary, district, or international church partner.

Our Mighty Mites will help one group of people learn about their Savior in their own heart language! Keep those Mite offerings coming so we can quickly fund this worthy grant.

Pick up and drop off Mite boxes at the Lutheran Women Missionary League display in the fellowship area. Children's Mite boxes are also available.

CALL COMMITTEE UPDATE

Over the past few months, the Call Committee has developed an informal job description that explains what we think we need to find in a new associate pastor. This is not the formal job description that HR manages, but is easier for us to use when identifying candidates to help us continue to meet Jesus' great Commission within our community.

Between November 28 - December 28, prayerfully consider if you know anyone who meets our needs as described in the attached informal job description. As defined in Risen Savior's Call Process, during those 30 days you can submit names to the church office for consideration.

Please send email to church office with:

1. Name of LCMS candidate Pastor and if you know their location (Church, city or state)
2. Your name and contact information. You will be contacted by the Call Committee to complete a form required by the district.
3. All candidate names must be submitted to the church office email.

We will then send names to the LCMS District for additional vetting and they will likely send back a list with additions from their side. If you have questions about the process, you can contact anyone on the Call Committee.

HEALTHY GROUPS GROW

Legend of the Candy Cane

Look at the Candy Cane
What do you see?
Stripes that are red
Like the blood shed for me.

White is for my Savior
Who is sinless and pure!
"J" is for Jesus my Lord,
that's for sure!

Turn it around
And a staff you will see
Jesus my shepherd
Was born for ME!

As a Connect Group HOST, I've always found it important to spend one group meeting just before Christmas celebrating together. We have food and Christmas cookies (of course!) and do an activity to show appreciation for one another. With the hustle and bustle of the season, it is a joy to meet with my group and celebrate our relationships and what God is doing in our lives.

When was the last time you invited a friend to your Connect Group? These "social" times together, like a Christmas celebration or summer BBQ, can provide a way to ease your friend into the spiritual aspects of the group. Help them meet the others and see who they connect with well. The more "group people" your friend feels comfortable around, the less threatening an invitation to your group discussion will be.

Healthy groups grow.

Blessings,
Robin Duclos
Director of Group Ministry

EXCITING NEW WAY TO CONNECT ON FACEBOOK!

Dear Friends,

Risen Savior has an exciting new way to reach out to our community, connect and start conversations with our unchurched friends - and you can easily play a part. In fact, you are important to our success - and it doesn't involve any extra time, awkward conversations or even donations - it's as easy as posting to Facebook.

In fact, that is all that is involved: Posting and sharing on Facebook!

We've recently implemented Outreach Social, which automatically posts beautiful, inspirational graphics on our Facebook page every day RisenSaviorLutheranChurchBroomfield. Some are Bible verses, inspirational sayings and quotes, as well as conversation starters. All we need you to do is like, comment and share them with your friends. That's it - see I told you it was easy!

Of course, if any of your friends ever ask why you are sharing these graphics, tell them about your faith, or our church, and invite them to come with you!

So here are your next steps:

Follow us on Facebook: RisenSaviorLutheranChurchBroomfield

Like and comment on our daily graphics to build our engagement

When you see posts you like, share them with your friends

Oh and one more thing, if you take pictures of adults at church events, please post them on the church's Facebook page. This will help show people how great our church family is! Thanks! I look forward to meeting your friends on Facebook!

Gladys Sweetwood
Coordinator of Communications

HELLO, FROM UP HERE!

I see all of your beautiful faces every Sunday, but I look forward to getting to know more of you personally, and get you involved in worship. A little about me, my family joined Risen Savior in 1992 when I was still a youngin. Now I'm a mom of three babes; Connor, Cullen and Kennedy (you may have seen this one join me on Sunday morning). I grew up with a love for music and theater that was fostered by amazing people in this very congregation. I'm excited to be able to bring my experience, and the talents God has blessed me with to worship, magnify and confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, as we draw others to him through art.

Risen Savior is not only my church, but my home, and my extended family. This community of believers has encouraged and supported me through the many changes of life, and I have in turn, watched this church and the community around it, grow and change. We have always been richly blessed with music and drama, and I look forward to continuing that tradition.

- * A few simple ways you can help:
- * You know that song that moves you, or sticks in your heart, or just makes you want to dance, what's that song for you? I need your suggestions, any kind of song, all the songs you love. Leave a note on my desk, send me an email or text, give me a call!
- * Is there a song that the Praise Team plays that you really love, or maybe miss hearing? Let me know, I need your positive feedback!
- * Is there someone in your family who plays an instrument or sings, or wants to get involved in drama? Have them reach out to me, or give me their contact information and I'll reach out to them!

I'm excited to be able to build on our worship, to grow our music and drama programs and find new ways to use art as worship to serve our church and community.

In Christ Love,
Sarah O'Connor
Director of Contemporary Worship

SACKS

Christmas is fast approaching with all that extra cooking and baking. If you don't have a re-loadable gift card for King Soopers or Safeway, stop by the SACKS kiosk after church and purchase one. You can also purchase regular gift cards that work great for stocking stuffing. The cards are good for groceries, gas and Starbucks. Cards can also be purchased during the week in the church office. Thank you everyone for supporting the ministries of the church by using these cards!

STUDENT MINISTRY UPDATE

“Here comes a season for most Christians when personal faith is challenged by doubts and questions. Whether these doubts come from a place of loss and suffering or from listening to a skeptic raise an objection, they come nonetheless. And unless faith is grounded in something more than emotion, we will struggle to effectively deal with our doubts or see them as an opportunity to grow in our commitment to Christ.” Our High School group meets every Sunday at 9:30 a.m. to talk about the Big Questions that every Christian faces at some point in their lives. Questions like, if there is a God why is there so much evil and suffering in this world? Join us and find out the answers to this question and more in room 205.

We have been busy getting everyone together to celebrate the word of God in our lives. We have been averaging around 15-20 students every Sunday night for Youth Group. This has been a huge improvement from last year where we didn't have a youth group.

We meet Sunday nights from 5:00-7:00 p.m.

You are welcome to join us for fun discussions and games.

“Holiday Shopping Safety” is the presentation for December.

The holidays allow us to relive happy times of our youth—we hear familiar carols, enjoy beautiful decoration and watch children tell their dreams to Santa. However, the crowds, excitement and activity can become fertile ground for crooks. These pleasant activities can be a distraction that carries us to “la-la-land” and away from the vigilance needed to thwart ID thieves. This presentation will talk about the risks and offer steps to keep you safe during the holiday shopping spree. Bible Studies

SUNDAY MORNING ADULT BIBLE STUDY

Sunday mornings 9:30 a.m. in Room 201 class runs through December 16
In The Beginning GOD, In this study we will be examining the first 11 chapters of Genesis and come to realize how the book of Genesis, ultimately the first 11 chapters, forms the foundation for all the doctrines, teachings, references, and ultimately the end of things as found in the rest of Scripture. You don't want to miss this "aerial view" of Genesis 1-11 and hear God's pristine words describe how it all began.

SUNDAY MORNING ADULT BIBLE STUDY

Sunday Mornings 11:00 a.m. Rooms 204/5 through December 9
A Man Named Martin—Part 3: The Movement by Lutheran Hour Ministries From Luther's "Ninety-five Theses in 1517 to the Peace of Westphalia" in 1648. God was at work in the Reformation. Fierce debates over Scripture, church doctrine, and late medieval church practice led to theological positions articulating salvation as God's grace in action, with man being left to add nothing to his own salvation. Viewers will see how the Reformation transformed European society and, eventually, left a profound impression around the globe.

"The Lord himself goes before you and will be with you; he will never leave you nor forsake you. Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged."

Deuteronomy 31:8

TUESDAY EVENING WOMEN'S BIBLE STUDY

Tuesday Evenings 6:30-8:30 p.m. Room 201 through December 18

The Women of Christmas by Liz Curtis Higgs

God Reached Down from Heaven with the best gift of All. A sacred season is about to unfold for three women whose hearts belong to God.

Elizabeth is barren, yet her trust in God remains fertile. Mary is betrothed in marriage, yet she is willing to bear God's Son. Anna is a widow full of years, yet she waits patiently, prayerfully for the Messiah to appear in the temple courts.

Following in their footsteps, you too can prepare for the Savior to enter your heart, your mind, and your life in a vibrant, new way. Liz Curtis Higgs explores the biblical stories of Elizabeth, Mary, and Anna, unwrapping each verse with tender care and introducing you afresh to The Women of Christmas.

Christ is our cornerstone and because He serves us, we serve. Cornerstone Ministry gathers men of the congregation who meet to serve with their hands and life experiences. Teams of men serve a specific home each month with two hours of kind labor. Does this interest describe you? Are you looking for a meaningful place to serve? Contact Kevin Hischke through the church office.

BROOMFIELD FISH

Thank you for helping feed families and fuel hope in Broomfield! We cannot tell you how much we appreciate the generous donation by the members of Risen Savior Lutheran Church to Broomfield FISH. It means the world to us!

November 8, 2018 of 27 pounds of food and personal care items

November 18 Thanksgiving baskets donated 1,130 pounds of food. As a Family Resource Center, our goal at FISH is to make sure that nobody ever goes hungry and that families have the resources and support to become self-reliant. Last year we helped more than 6,000 unduplicated Broomfield residents and distributed nearly 900,000 pounds of food. More than half of the people we serve are children, seniors on a fixed income and those with a disability! Please know that you have made a real difference in the lives of your neighbors.

Because of your generosity and commitment, 92 cents of every dollar goes directly to supporting families in need.

You are invaluable to Broomfield FISH and we are proud to call you part of our donor family.

IMPORTANT-only non-perishable food in its original packaging is accepted.

When you bring items for FISH please put in the baskets under the Mission and Outreach Tables in the Hall.

From Thailand

Foreign Mission Work: Dangerous Work

On October 27th, a group of Christians at the Children Center where we work tried to force us to close the center down. They came to the center wearing masks to hide their faces and put up three banners outside the center's fence saying, "Warning: The center will be permanently closed starting on November 1, 2018." They also warned our staff, "If you don't close down the center and leave, we will not guarantee your safety." This group of Christians wanted to take over the property and turn the center into a residential area. We have yet to resolve this problem. Click here to see a video: <https://vimeo.com/302684650>.

This was one of the banners that a local Christians group put outside our hostel's gate

While in the US for a close relative's funeral, Fung met three Hmong pastors. One of the pastors said to Fung, "Doing local ministry is difficult. I want to join you in Thailand to do foreign mission work." In response, Fung said, "Local ministry could be difficult, but not dangerous. Foreign mission work is not only difficult, but also dangerous". The pastor asked, "How so?" Fung replied, "You could lose your life for doing foreign mission work. You may be in a country where you have limited rights, and the government or the people that you try to share the word of God may be hostile towards you and/or the Gospel to the point that they want to take your life. You see, the day I decided to accept the call to do foreign mission work overseas, I put my family in harm's way. My wife and I must accept the fact that we could be arrested, or even be killed, in the country that we are sent to do the Lord's work. Every foreign missionary that we know must accept this fact." The pastor said, "I did not realize how dangerous foreign mission work could be. I will have to think it over before becoming a foreign missionary."

Another Hmong pastor who was listening to the conversation said to Fung, "You need to be careful in the work you do because we certainly don't want anything to happen to you or your family." This statement led our family to ask, "How can we be more careful than what we are doing? Why have we uprooted our family into a foreign country to do the Lord's work if it is dangerous?" As we prayed and thought about these questions, we remembered what one of Fung's former coworkers told us about being safe. He said, "Safety is not the absence of evil, but is the presence of God" (Kurtis Smith). This is true, and that is why the word of the Lord says, "God is our refuge and strength, an ever-present help in trouble" (Psalm 46:1). This is why our family and many other foreign missionaries are doing what we are called to do. We know that the Lord called and sent us to do foreign mission work. He is our refuge and strength because He is ever-present with us. This is also why we always ask that you keep us in your prayers. Therefore, thank you for your prayers for our safety and your financial support of the Lord's work through our family. Please continue to keep the situation at our Children's Center in your prayers. Your missionaries, Fung, Kalia and Mercy Lo.
