CALL COMMITTEE UPDATE

During December, church members submitted several names for the Associate Pastor role. It's great to have your active participation in this process. We're forwarding those names to the District, who will respond with additional information about those pastors along with any other pastors that they think we should consider. While we're waiting to get that list returned, please continue to let the call committee know what you're looking for in our new servant leader. Send your requests and questions through the church office.
