LOVE IS VULNERABLE

With people's attention being drawn toward Valentine's Day and the subject of love, I would like to share with you this challenging quote.

"To love at all is to be vulnerable. Love anything and your heart will be wrung and possibly broken. If you want to make sure of keeping it intact you must give it to no one, not even an animal. Wrap it carefully round with hobbies and little luxuries; avoid all entanglements. Lock it up safe in the casket or coffin of your selfishness. But in that casket, safe, dark, motionless, airless, it will change. It will not be broken; it will become unbreakable, impenetrable, irredeemable. To love is to be vulnerable."

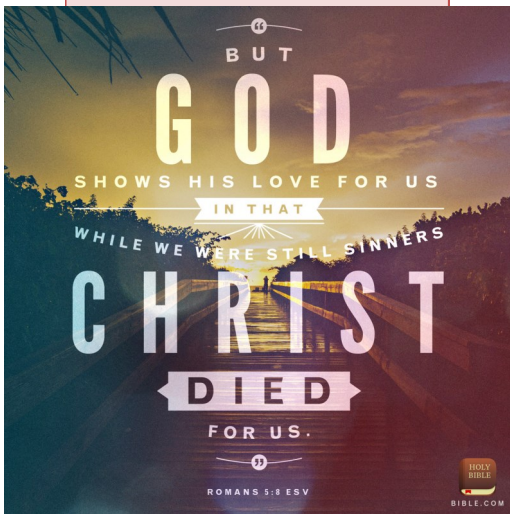

C.S. Lewis

Our society generally views love as sentimental feeling rather than as a courageous choice.

"Love is not affectionate feeling, but a steady wish for the loved person's ultimate good as far as it can be obtained."

C.S. Lewis

You don't have to have a fond feeling for someone to love them, to do good to them. We all love ourselves. Yet, how often have you been disappointed with yourself, irritated at your own behavior and words. Still you fed, clothed and cared for yourself. Even when we don't like ourselves, we still love and do well to ourselves.

Love is an act of bravery and faith that seeks to bless our family, friends and neighbors even if they don't deserve it. That's how God loves us:

"God demonstrates his own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us." Romans 5:8

Have the courage of faith to love – a love vulnerable to pain and rejection; a love that brings blessing and goodness into other people's lives, weather they deserve it or not.

RISEN SAVIOR LUTHERAN CHURCH

- ✚ PROVIDE A SPIRITUAL FOUNDATION IN THE WORD OF GOD, THROUGH WORSHIP, EDUCATION, AND OUTREACH

WHAT'S THE BIG DEAL ABOUT SMALL GROUPS?

The first Christian small group was made up of Jesus and the twelve men he invited to follow him. Many of the first churches included small groups of disciples that met in each other's homes. And since then missionaries travel the world, stopping long enough to start a new church.

Risen Savior Lutheran Church was started by a small group of families with a desire to expand God's Kingdom in what was then rural "north Broomfield". 30 years later we have over 250 people gathering in small groups in homes or in the church building, studying God's Word and serving His people.

"Never doubt that a small group of thoughtful, committed people can change the world. Indeed, it is the only thing that ever has."

Margaret Mead

People's lives change when they come to know Jesus. Small groups are tried-and-true places where people grow spiritually by providing each other insight, advice, and encouragement. They take the "church experience" beyond Sunday and put into practice the truths we learn from the Bible.

If you're not yet in a small group, start one now. All it takes is a few friends who want to grow. Contact Robin in the office for more information and to pick up your HOST Kit.

Thank you to everyone for the help and support for all the help these past 7 months with Student Ministry! I pray that we will keep moving forward and growing in the way that God has decided for us. Come join us look at Dr. Seuss through the lens of the Scriptures, as originally told to Rock of Ages Lutheran Church in Colorado Springs, CO by Rev. Ronald Baker.

Dr. Seuss is fun. Period. And not just for children, but for people of all ages. The whimsical characters call back memories of childhood with lessons that mature us (hopefully). On the surface, the funny stories, names, and events propel our consciousness into other worlds if only for a brief time.

THANK YOU

PROVIDING FOR THE NEEDY OF BROOMFIELD

Dear Members,

Thank you for helping feed families and fuel hope in Broomfield! We cannot tell you how much we appreciate the generous donation by the members of Risen Savior Lutheran Church of check for $50.00 and 15 pounds of food January 24, 6 pounds of food to FISH. It means the world to us!

As a Family Resource Center, our goal at FISH is to make sure that nobody ever goes hungry and that families have the resources and support to become self-reliant. Last year we helped more than 6,000 unduplicated Broomfield residents and distributed nearly 900,000 pounds of food. More than half of the people we serve are children, seniors on a fixed income and those with a disability! Please know that you have made a real difference in the lives of your neighbors. Because of your generosity and commitment, 92 cents of every dollar goes directly to supporting families in need.

January 2019 FISH success story: “When I had my fourth daughter we hit a rough patch. We lost our business. We lost our house. We couldn’t pay the bills. We couldn’t feed our kids. It was really, really hard to come to FISH and humble myself to ask for help. The people at FISH were very gracious and they helped us through our crisis. It was a huge relief! A 2018 FISH client.”

You are invaluable to Broomfield FISH and we are proud to call you part of our donor family.

With deep gratitude,

Dayna Scott, Executive Director Broomfield FISH

BLESSINGS OF WARMTH

Monday, February 4 and March 4 at 9:00 a.m.

Hello Ladies, I would like your input on changes for Blessings of Warmth.

After much prayer and discussions with a few ladies in our group, I would like to make a group decision. If you can attend one of the two dates above or send an Email to Gladys Sweetwood through church office. It seems that we have lost a few ladies and fewer are able to sew the blankets. Therefore I propose that we use up the fleece and jeans we have into kits and use up the remaining fabric, jeans and notions.

I am making this suggestion because I am the one whom arranges the meetings, reminders and storage of our fabric, jeans and made blankets will be stepping down. If another would wish to step up then this mission could continue.

This has been a wonderful outreach for many years but it seems to have lost its wind, fewer and fewer ladies are able to help with these quilts.

In 2018 our group donated $500 to Mount Saint Vincent and many blankets. Blessing Children with the warmth and love from a special blanket for a hurting Children at Mount Saint Vincent

CALLED TO SERVE IN UGANDA

I am asking 20 people to join me in Uganda by donating $10-$20 a month in 2019.

I believe God has gifted all of us with special talents. I believe mine is that of servanthood. I have never been one for the spotlight but have always loved helping those who are meant to be. Since I have been in East Africa, I have had so many opportunities to serve, and I just love it!

My major in college was one of servanthood. My first job was one of servanthood. I love lifting people up, encouraging them and helping them see their self-worth.

At House to House, I get to serve the local Gulu community by training Ugandans to lead Bible studies in their communities.

At Our Call Missions, I get to help raise funds and awareness as well as contribute to quality education, which is so needed, in the lives of these amazing children.

At Project Pay it Forward, I get to help people realize their full potential by walking beside them as they start a small business to provide for themselves and their families.

In the future, I will also be serving at a library opening soon in the community. This will be the first place in Gulu where people can just come and read books. Here, I will also have the opportunity to have story time with the children of Gulu.

I love serving, and I love that I get to be a part of several ministries in Gulu that are helping people in different capacities.

Thank you to all members of Risen Savior who volunteered to do Bell Ringing in December for the Broomfield Salvation Army. With your efforts at Macy's and King Soopers over $3000 dollars were raised.

Appreciation for all who volunteered, and hope others may also consider ringing next year.

Happy New Year: Hard at Work

Celebrating the Hmong New Year

We give thanks to the Lord for sending His faithful people to come and help us do His work during the month of December 2018 and January 2019. We had four different teams come over from the US, Laos, Vietnam, and Thailand. They each did their parts including making the concrete blocks for the fence and wiring iron rods together to form the base for the fence. It was a long process, but the side of the wall that the volunteers came to do is almost finished. We need more volunteers to come help us to finish the whole fence surrounding the center to give protection to children who are staying at the center.

In addition to making the fence wall at Ban Hmong's Hope Hostel, we also hosted a theological training session for the Hmong pastors and their wives. The training was on "Prayer". We thank the Lord for sending Rev. Bob Smith and his wife Alice, along with Rev. Lang Yang and his wife Phoua, to come and teach our leaders. Please click the link here: <https://vimeo.com/308199195> to see a video of the training sessions. We need more pastors and church leaders to come and help train the Hmong pastors, lay leaders, and their wives for the work of ministry. We encourage you to pray about the possibility of bringing volunteers from your church to Thailand to assist us.

December and January are the months that the Hmong people celebrate their New Year. Here are two of our young single volunteer men tossing courtship balls back and forth with the ladies at the Hmong New Year in Khun Chang Khian, Thailand.

Dr. Kalia Sayaovong Lo

On December 14, Kalia attended her doctorate commencement at Bethel University in St. Paul, Minnesota. Her confirmed degree is Doctor of Education. Her dissertation focused on hosting international students by faith based universities in Minnesota. She looks forward to starting an international school in Mae Rim, Thailand in the future. We give thanks to the Lord for giving Kalia the wisdom to finish her study.

CROSSING CAMBODIA

STEPPING OUT ON FAITH, TRUSTING GOD TO CHANGE THE WORLD.

Because of you We Thrive!

In 2019 we want to make sure you all know how grateful we are that you have supported us in our efforts to make the Gospel known! Find out more about what's happening and how you can support Crossing Cambodia.

Its incredible what we get to see God do when people are faithful to His calling! 5 years ago we were enrolling 5 children in school and honestly did not even know if we'd still be operating 5 years down the road. We were taking everything 1 day at a time and operating on a tiny budget. However, we trusted in God and kept on asking people back in the US and Canada to help us share the message of Christ with the street children and their families. We now have 6 full time staff and are daily reaching out and sharing the love of Christ with 28 children, their families, and the community around them. We first and foremost give thanks to God for His provision and guidance, and on top of that we give thanks for all of you who pray for us, who encourage and uplift us, and who send in financial to keep our ministry going.

Not everyone can go abroad but many are still called in service to the Lord. We can't truly express how grateful we are that you have been faithful to God's calling and have supported our ministry. This year we want to share our thankfulness with you. All of us in Cambodia - staff, students, and family - want to make sure that you know how much we appreciate what you do and that we are praying for you and the churches that uplift us! Please know that we often joyfully praise God for your faithfulness!

Because of you, all those we serve have the opportunity to thrive in Christ!

GREAT CHALLENGES AND GREAT JOYS IN RURAL CHURCHES

There's something about manger scenes that bugs me. The serene smiles on the faces of Joseph and Mary, the freshly ironed clothing that the shepherds wear, the clean and silent baby--it all seems too perfect. Like any painting or photograph, a manger scene is a snapshot of one particular moment in time, frozen by itself and separated from what came before and what comes after.

But life isn't like that, is it? Life is not a snapshot. Real life is lived in time, with one moment tumbling into the next without your consent. It is dynamic rather than static. Real life is lived, in all its ups and downs and twists and turns. You cannot capture life in a single image. You cannot frame it and hang it on your wall.

In real life, Mary's exhilarated smile was bathed in sweat and exhaustion from giving birth. Joseph was relieved that she and the baby were safe and sound, but he also regretted that he could not provide a more comfortable place for the birth than a stable.

In real life, the shepherds' clothes were wrinkled and dirty from the long walk. They were dazed from the strange events of the night and couldn't help but wonder if it was all an elaborate hoax. As they arrived at the stable and climbed over animals to find the couple and newborn, any vestige of doubt gave way to astonishment and praise.

In real life, the baby was pushed and prodded, enduring a long labor until he came out and breathed that first gasp of air. The cord was cut while those little arms and legs flailed about. The baby's screams cut through the silent night until finally the baby was comforted with momma's milk.

You can't take a picture of the regret of Joseph. You can't paint the smell of the stable. A sculpture of the infant Jesus doesn't cry out for his mommy.

Jesus wasn't born into a picture or a painting or a sculpture. He was born into a world in which exhaustion tumbles into exhilaration, regret into relief, doubt into astonishment, cries into comfort, a world of ups and downs and twists and turns. This is, Jesus is born into our world. The miracle of Christmas is that Jesus is not just "God with them," that is, people 2,000 years ago in the Bible. Rather, he is Immanuel, God with us today. The passing of time, the tumbling of one moment into the next, connects us to those moments so very long ago. The miracle of Christmas is that the words spoken to the shepherds reverberate through the years and come into our ears: "Unto you is born this day a Savior."

Today Jesus is born in cold homes in Wisconsin and warm thatched huts in Cambodia. He is born in stables and penthouses, at school or at work, for rich or poor, slave or free, for the exhausted and the regretful, for those who doubt and those who cry. He is born in the real world, your world. Christ is born for you.

Maybe the manger scene is helpful despite it all. That snapshot turns out to be a window through time to the singular event that gathers all our time, and thus all our exhaustion, all our regret, all our doubt, all our cries. In the wake of that event, we are left exhilarated by the joy of a newborn baby, relieved by the peace he brings, astonished by the love God has shown, and comforted by the hope that endures beyond the tumble of our years.
