Sermon Series Fact or Friction: Finding HOPE in Challenging Times Week 4: Friction In Ourselves

Scripture: Romans 12:1-3

Most Christians have a tendency to see themselves either as worse than they really are or as better than they really are. You do not often find a person who has found a good balance within themselves to see themselves the way God sees them. We cannot conform to the patterns of this world, because these patterns cause friction within us. We cannot think of ourselves more highly than we ought, because it leads to friction.

We must allow our minds to be renewed and refreshed by the spirit of God.
We must have a sober self-assessment so we can live from our truest selves and live our lives to the fullest.

SUNDAYS IN LENT

“God Will Get us Through Our Tough Times”

During the season of Lent, beginning on Ash Wednesday, we will look at the Old Testament man named Joseph. Joseph lived in turbulent times. So do we. He was betrayed, enslaved, and imprisoned. But Joseph knew that God was with him, and God had a plan and purpose for Joseph's life.

The lesson we will learn from Joseph is that people may intend to do you evil, to hurt and harm you. But God will transform those evil circumstances for our good and the good of others.

Joseph is similar to Christ.

Both suffered but both brought salvation to their people. Jesus' crucifixion was intended to harm and destroy Jesus, but God used it for Good so our sins would be forgiven. It's why we call the day he was crucified “GOOD” Friday.

Let's look at Joseph and Jesus and see how “God Will Get us Through Our Tough Times”.

The Federal Estate Tax Exemption is currently $11.7 million for an individual and $23.4 million for a married couple. Under those rules, most of us will not pay a federal estate tax. However, there can be state estate taxes. Predictions are that federal estate exemptions will go down drastically soon. Do you know what impact that would have on the gifts you plan to give from your estate to family and ministry? Your Risen Savior Gift Planning Counselor can help. Contact Jason Jones
