Second Sunday of Lent

God is Working while You're waiting

How are you at waiting? Especially, how are you at waiting when the waiting involves hardship, injustice, pain, and agony? Can you wait even when it's uncomfortable? Or maybe more accurately, can you wait without complaining and being bitter? Today we'll learn to patiently wait on the Lord because There is a purpose in your waiting. We'll learn that God uses the "waiting," to prepare us for our next season of life, to be blessed and be a blessing to others. And we'll learn that God is good even when life isn't.

LCMS Foundation

Today | Tomorrow | Forever

Surveys indicate that most people who give to support ministry are not highly motivated by tax issues. They are motivated by God's grace. Yet those who support the Lord's work want to be wise about the management of God's gifts and this means paying attention to the impact of taxation on the use of those gifts. Your Risen Savior Gift Planning Counselor can help you begin that consideration. Your Risen Savior Gift Planning Counselor can help. Contact Jason Jones

BUTTERFLY ART FOR EASTER

Join us in covering the church for Easter with color. Just like a butterfly, transformation and preparation in life can be painful, but God is preparing us to shine his beautiful colors of love in this world. Help us by coloring butterflies throughout the Lent season to be used to bring your unique color into our Easter decorations. Bring your colored butterflies to church and look for the collection basket in the Fellowship Center.
