Sermon Series Fact or Friction:
Finding HOPE in Challenging Times
Week 3: Friction In Our Finances

Scripture: Matthew 6:19-21:24

Throughout human history, there has been more friction between people over finances than any other thing. The reason is because many people try and invest in a relationship with God while also investing in some kind of lucrative endeavor. The problem is, sometimes there is more time, energy, and attention given to growing physical wealth than there is to growing our spiritual health. If we are not careful, we will find ourselves more dedicated to the temporal things of this earth rather than the eternal things of heaven. Pay attention to what gets the bulk of your passion each day. If it's something that does not have eternal value, it is time for a change.

Very few of us enjoy paying taxes. Yet Jesus, speaking to this topic once said, "Give to Caesar what is Caesar's and to God what is God's." That takes deliberate thought and careful planning. Your Risen Savior Gift Planning Counselor can help you begin to ask the right questions.
